

17.2.3 - Does your university as a body participate in international collaboration on gathering or measuring data for the SDGs?

Since 2020, more than 233 academic journal publications have been collaboratively published by Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University and foreign researchers. In addition, introducing a larger and more diverse range of foreign key partners for global cooperation. Through international collaboration, Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University gathers or measures relevant data connected to sustainable development goals and develops plans, seminars or papers to address such goals.

1. According to the search results in google scholar with the specified keywords related to sustainable development goals, the overall average of scientific publications published in the last 3 years on the sustainability of the Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq university is 105, as shown in the Table below. The reader also referred to see some of the published articles here: (<https://ijsu.edu.iq/researchers/researcherspublished>).

Scholarly Publications on Sustainability Published	Years (2020-2022)
"Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University" & sustainability	128
"Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University" & green	77
"Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University" & "climate change"	160
"Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University" & "renewable energy"	136
"Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University" & environment	26
Average	105

2. On Wednesday, August 17, 2022, the Department of Oil and Gas Economics - College of Administrative and Financial Sciences held a workshop for students of the department - the third stage, as part of the requirements to complete the summer training, entitled (Oil prices and their impact on the Iraqi economy). The lecture was delivered by the Director of the Crude Oil and Gas Marketing Organization at SOMO, Mr. Muhammad Kamel Danbos Al-Dulaimi, where he touched on the main factors leading to the rise and fall of crude oil prices based on the data collected during the previous years.

