

2.5.4 - Does your university as a body prioritise purchase of products from local, sustainable sources?

The Imam Ja'afar Al-Sadiq University has always prioritized sourcing its goods locally and sustainably. For instance, in order to cut down on food miles and carbon emissions from long-distance transportation, the student cafeterias primarily buy local and seasonal goods. Local purchases encourage local consumption and assure ingredient control, giving cafeteria customers peace of mind that their food is nutritious, fresh, and safe. Additionally, it ensures that the university will have the bread it needs from local farmers.
